Court Receives Case Initiation Filing—Family Law (Domestic Violence Prevention [DVP] with/without Child) (INI811)

Exchange Description

A trial court uses this California judicial branch XML schema-based data exchange to receive case initiation filing documents from an integration partner to initiate a family law case for the following case types:

- Domestic Violence Prevention with Minor Children
- Domestic Violence Prevention without Minor Children
- Request for Orders to Stop Elder or Dependent Adult Abuse

An integration partner may use this data exchange when:

- A case participant wishes to request an order to stop domestic violence.
- A case participant wishes to request an order to stop elder abuse.

The request message sent by an integration partner to the trial court contains the case initiation information (e.g., participant – protected, participant – protection from, abuse description, and filing document).

The response message from the trial court contains delivery confirmation data with status information (e.g., “Received”), along with contents of the original request message sent by the integration partner to the trial court.

PROBABLE INTERESTED INTEGRATION PARTNERS

- California Department of Child Support Services
- Electronic filing service provider

RELATED EXCHANGES

Related data exchanges are any preceding or subsequent data exchanges that may be used by an integration partner as part of the overall business process related to this exchange.

- Court Receives Subsequent Case Filing (INI816), which is used by the integration partner to submit all additional case filing information to the trial court.
- Court Sends Case Participant Demographic Information Notification (PF901), which is used to send updated participant demographic information if participant demographic information is updated by this exchange (INI811).

For more information about this and other data exchanges, contact integrationpartners@jud.ca.gov

Business Response Exchanges

The business response refers to any subsequent exchanges that may occur as a direct result of this exchange, as follows:

- Court Sends Case Initiation Filing—Family Law (Domestic Violence Prevention [DVP] with/without Child) Confirmation Notification (INI930), which confirms that the initial filing successfully passed the clerk review (CR) process and contains the new case filing information.
- Court Sends Clerk Review Rejection Notification (EFL902), which contains rejection information in response to the court clerk's review of the initial filing.

Error Handling

If the trial court does not successfully receive and process the incoming message, the integration partner will receive an error message with an error code and error reason.

Additional Information

- A single exchange message is sent for each family law domestic violence prevention case filing initiation request.
- The content of the business response to this exchange is defined in a different exchange listed above in the Business Response Exchanges section.
- This exchange is subject to the court clerk review process, which requires that court personnel review the contents of the exchange before it is accepted and added to CCMS.
